COURSE SCHEDULE

Day One

Seminar registration will take place in the foyer between 4:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. on the day of your arrival. The seminar itself will begin at 5:00 p.m. with a welcome and introductory session. Course materials will be distributed at this session and participants will be assigned to self-directed work groups. This is an excellent kickoff to a great course and provides an opportunity to meet both the faculty, as well as other participants.

Day Two

Continental breakfast will be served between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. On the second day of the program, the morning session will run from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. A refreshment break will take place at approximately 10:30 a.m. A buffet luncheon will be served between 12:00 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. The afternoon session will begin at 1:30 p.m. and conclude at 4:00 p.m. with a mid-afternoon refreshment break.

Day Three

Continental breakfast will be served between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. On day three the morning session will run from 9:00 a.m. until noon with a refreshment break to take place at approximately 10:30 a.m. In the afternoon, participants will enjoy a recess. This free time will afford participants an opportunity to experience the many area attractions as well as the first class recreational facilities at the host properties during daylight hours. An evening session will take place between 6:00 p.m. and 8:45 p.m. Refreshments will be served at 7:00 p.m.

Day Four

Continental breakfast will be served between 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. On the fourth and final day of the program, the seminar will begin at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 11:45 a.m. with a refreshment break at 10:00 a.m. Your certificate and APC Certification will be awarded at the conclusion of the program.

The Douglas Difference

We are committed to providing you with the best training available. For 50 years, our flagship seminar, The Annual Administrative Professionals Course, has been recognized as the gold standard in administrative professional

1. America's Most Comprehensive and Longest Running Administrative Professionals Program

Since day one, we have worked closely with HR departments, managers, and administrative professionals themselves to ensure that our courses meet the rigorous needs of our participants. It is from our experience over the last four decades that we have meticulously crafted our programs. The praise this course consistently receives reflects our persistent research and subsequent revision, ensuring this seminar is at the cutting edge.

2. A Truly Limited Enrollment Seminar

We know your time is valuable, that is why we have NOT designed a conference in which you will be crammed into a ballroom with hundreds of others to listen to a bevy of motivational speakers. At this program, you are a student, not an audience member. This course is a content-rich, practical, educational experience where real and meaningful skills are taught. The communication is "two-way" fostering open dialogue. You will leave this program with new tactics and approaches that will immediately improve your organizational and interpersonal skills as well as enhance the partnership you have with your boss.

3. First Class Accommodation Included

One of the greatest benefits of attending a residential program comes from the networking and camaraderie that takes place outside of the educational sessions. It is for this reason that unlike other courses, we include your hotel accommodation so that everyone is under the same roof.

4. Highly Qualified Faculty

We use the university standard; all of our courses are taught by experts in the field, not scripted presenters. Knowledgeable and entertaining, each of our faculty members holds at least a master's degree from a fully accredited university and one or more professional qualifications, (Ph.D., CMC, PMP, etc.) Our faculty members also have on average more than 15 years' experience educating administrative professionals.

5. A Professional Certification Course – NOT A CONFERENCE

What's the Difference between a course and a conference? Perhaps the key difference is that at a true professional development course, a real dialogue is established. At a true educational course, there is a much greater feeling of collegiality and continuity. The purpose is education - not entertainment. Attendance is limited so you can engage with both the faculty and your fellow participants.

And you'll be in good company...

Here are some of the more than twenty-thousand organizations that have sponsored participants at our public seminars:

Founder & President

DR. PAUL A. DOUGLAS

Leader of our faculty and author of this course, Paul has dedicated his life and career to the educational and developmental needs of the administrative professional. He has a Bachelor of Commerce and MBA from the University of Alberta where he taught as a member of the Faculty of Business. Paul also has a Ph.D in business administration and is a Certified Management Consultant (CMC). He has written a dozen books on management, leadership and the administrative professional.

COURSE FRAMEWORK

Stepping Up to Leadership

From Administrative Assistant to Administrative Professional. While some of the “old guard” believes that the 90’s name change from secretary to administrative assistant to administrative professional is just another example of political correctness, it in fact represents a true paradigm shift. Many of the functions and responsibilities of management have fallen on the shoulders of administrative professionals as organizations have downsized over the past decade. In this important session, we will discuss this new reality and develop those crucial management tools needed to take you to a higher level of proficiency. You will learn how to:

- Make the vital transition from administrative assistant to administrative professional
- Understand your changing role and your manager’s expectation
- Increase your credibility as your boss’s representative
- Learn how to conduct an effective interview
- Learn to apply the 9-step coaching model with juniors
- Position yourself for greater responsibility
- Recognize and complement your boss’s unique management style
- Apply the iMind construct for gaining the respect of your boss
- Eliminate the ‘grey areas’ of authority and responsibility
- Adopt new planning skills for anticipating and proactively supporting your boss
- Gain your managers trust in problem solving and decision making
- Express yourself so you will be listened to
- Take unnecessary pressure off your boss
- Become a strategic partner with your boss
- Increase the respect of your boss and be taken more seriously

Managing Stress and Emotions in Challenging Times

Stress has been called the “disease of the twenty-first century.” Unquestionably, the next decade will bring with it continued change and increased challenges for those in the role of administrative professional. The pressure of doing more with fewer resources and tighter timelines will only intensify. Paradoxically, stress can be either “the spice of life or the kiss of death.” The critical difference between positive and negative stress lies in the way we perceive and deal with each stressful situation – in short, the way we cope! At this important session you will come to recognize the sources, symptoms and effects of stress and will develop strategies for effectively preventing, reducing, and managing stress. Specifically, how to:

- Recognize your stress symptoms and create strategies to reduce them
- Gain an understanding of what causes your stress
- Identify the role and impact of change on stress
- Learn to turn stress into personal energy
- How to recognize and deal with “Type A” behavior

- Role-Stress: Understanding the personal/professional dichotomy
- Examining your conflict management style
- Identifying unfounded attitudes and irrational beliefs that increase stress
- Five common manifestations of low self-esteem
- Why successful and capable administrative professionals struggle with low self-esteem
- What we can learn from Adams, Monroe, Pinze and Prior
- Ten proven ways to enhance self-esteem
- Relaxation and meditation techniques that really work
- Autogenic exercises you can use anywhere
- How to evoke the relaxation response

STRATEGIC EXECUTION: Gaining NEW Control Over Your Time – AND Those Who Abuse It

Every day, you’re judged by your ability to manage projects, priorities and deadlines. At this essential session, you will develop the understanding, skills, and confidence to put your personal and organizational strategies into action. You will learn how to identify and deal effectively with the unanticipated task, the unimportant task and other people’s priorities; specifically, you will learn to:

- Pinpoint where you need to take action
- Identify the deadliest traps busy administrative professionals fall into and how you avoid them
- Develop personal planning techniques that minimize “fire-fighting”
- Recognize and manage your tendency toward perfectionism
- Focus your efforts on what is most important based on your role and responsibilities
- Avoid the trap of using urgency as the tie-breaker between competing priorities
- Learn best practices for effectively prioritizing your time and activities
- Nixon vs. Kennedy: the Pareto Principle
- Preserving your “Prime Time”

- Enhance your ability to act more proactively
- Never say, “I don’t have time” again
- Action Plan: Developing a NEW success blueprint

Essential Memory Skills for Administrative Professionals

To master your memory is to invite success in business, in education and in your relationships. A trained memory is an absolute necessity for today’s administrative professional. In your business or professional life as well as in your social life, the ability to remember names and faces, verbal instructions, and numerical data is of immeasurable importance. At this remarkable session, you will learn how to:

- Remember numerical information without time-consuming repetition

- Forget your daily planner – File your weekly appointments in your mind
- Develop laser-like focus and concentration
- Painlessly remember information that will boost your career
- Remember anniversaries and historical dates with ease
- Make a more powerful impression at meetings and presentations
- Razor-sharpen your business edge: Remembering verbal instructions and financial data
- Remember the names of hundreds of associates, clients and acquaintances.
- Discover creative powers you didn’t know you had
